

PALS. Winsome Patricia Burke Ziegfeld and her favorite pony Sally. This pair of real pals are a familiar sight on the sands at Palm Beach where Patsy's daddy and muvver, Flo Ziegfeld and Billie Burke, have been spending the season. Underwood

WALTER L. GREENE giving the final touches to his famous painting of the U. S. S. New Mexico, first electrically driven battleship, preparatory to sending it to Washington, where it was presented to Secretary Daniels of the Navy before a notable gathering last Monday by E. W. Rice jr., president of the General Electric Co.

Right — FARMAN'S LATEST. The famous French aeronaut, Henri Farman, at the wheel of his new water glider, a novel craft driven by a four bladed airplane propeller which attained a speed of nearly sixty miles an hour at its recent trials on the Seine. Note the generous size of the passenger compartment and the novel construction of the craft's hull. Kadel & Herbert

Left — THE WONDER "KID." The marvelous six-year-old screen artist, Jack Coogan, whose clever acting in the difficult title rôle of the latest Chaplin picture has deservedly elevated him to stardom with movie fans the country over. The inimitable Charlie says Master Jack is the greatest screen find of the year. I. F. S.

Left and below—TETHERING AN AERIAL LINER. The giant British dirigible R-33, moored to a novel masthead at Pulham, England, where tests are being made to solve the airship mooring problem. A swivel permits the airship to swing with the wind in any direction. If the transatlantic R-34 had had something of this kind to return to on its last flight she might not have come to grief. International

Left — MRS. RICHARD PARKER McCORMICK, of New York, and her infant daughter. Mrs. McCormick was one of the prominent society women who solicited for the "Heart of Gold," the novel catch-all erected in Fifth Avenue during the drive of the European Relief Council. When the wife of our new Secretary of Commerce and Mr. W. B. Sheppard, of the Harriman National Bank, opened the huge emblem, they found it contained over $3,000. Grace Saxon

THE CRAZE IN LONDON. Fan masks of every description are quite the thing, don'tcherknow, at fashionable evening affairs in dear old England. Many of them are in the shape of weird and grotesque masks, à la Benda, but this particular one of delicate lace is less fantastic and permits a glimpse of the owner's face. Underwood

Right — ITALY'S NEW AMBASSADOR TO THE U. S. Senator Rolando Ricci snapped at his desk in Washington. Signor Ricci is sixty-one years old, has practiced law for forty and for the past nine has been an Italian Senator. Keystone

Right—WHO SAYS CLOTHES DON'T MAKE THE MAN? Oscar O. Widmann as Sylvia Armstrong in "Three Queens," a new musical comedy to be presented by the Alumni Association of Poly Prep at the Brooklyn Academy of Music next Friday and Saturday evenings. Otto Sarony
